Brennan-Brennan.

A pretty church wedding was that of Miss Margaret Brennan, daughter of Councilman and Mrs. Thomas J. Brennan, and Thomas Herbert Brennan of Chicago, which was solemnized this morning at 9 o'clock in the immaculate Conception church in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Rev. Father J. T. Burns. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Higgins as maid of honor while the best man was Vincent Barry.

As the bridal party entered the church Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Kiefer's orchestra and during the ceremony "Monte and Florencia" was softly rendered. At the offertory "Ave Maria" was rendered by Miss Margaret Desmond and Miss Jennie Cuneo. The bride wore a handsome gown of white mesalino satin draped with white marquisette and trimmed with pearl trimmings. Her large white hat was trimmed with flowers and white ribbons, while her bride bouquet was of white lilies. The maid of honor wore white embroidery over pale blue and a large white hat trimmed with pale blue. The altar was prettily decorated with ferns, palms and carnations. As the bridal party left the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by the orchestra and the bridesmaids were Rudolph Ralston and James Doyle.

The ceremony was followed by a well appointed wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride on West Fayette street. Covers were laid for about 50 guests including relatives and near friends of the young couple. At the bride's table, which was at the head of the dining room, were laid for the bride and bridegroom, Miss Mary Higgins, Vincent Barry, Rudolph Ralston and James Doyle. A color scheme of blue and white was daintily carried out in all the appointments. A large basket of carnations formed the attractive centerpiece. The basket of the bride was adorned with an immense bow of pale blue satin ribbon. The place cards were dainty hand painted affairs adorned with girls carrying bouquets of flowers. Carnations were also used as floral decorations throughout the house, while ferns and palms were used in the parlor, dining room and reception hall. After the wedding, Mrs. Brennan was at home from 2 until 4 o'clock at the bride's home. This evening they will leave for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, N. Y., Detroit, Mich., and Toronto, Canada. They will be at home at Ravenswood, a suburb of Chicago, after August 1. The bride is a graduate of the local High School and is widely and favorably known. A short time after her graduation she accepted a position as society reporter on The Daily News, which position she held up until her resignation a short time ago. The bridegroom is a son of Thomas J. Brennan of Detroit, Mich., and is connected with the news department of the Associated Press in Chicago. At one time he was bookkeeper at the plant of the West Penn Cold Storage Company in the West Side. Since leaving here he has been located in Chicago. He is a graduate of St. Mary's College at Kansas City. Displayed in a room on the first floor was a handsome array of wedding gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Brennan. Among the out of town guests were J. C. Doyle, Miss Rose Doyle, Miss Anna Doyle, James Doyle of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Doyle of Latrobe; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Schmidt of Uniontown, and Thomas T. Kight of Mt. Pleasant, Cosgrove-Ballou.

The marriage of Miss Mary Ballou Cosgrove, daughter of Cosgrove and Mrs. Thomas Cosgrove of Uniontown, West Braddock, and Mr. Clarence Marturin Ballou of North Adams, Mass., was solemnized this morning at 8:30 o'clock at St. Brendan's Catholic Church, Braddock. Rev. Father William J. McMillin, rector at St. Paul's Cathedral, of Pittsburgh, officiated. The wedding was a very large and handsomely appointed affair and was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride, covers laid only for the members of the bridal party. This evening at 8 o'clock a large reception will be held at the home of the bride. Last evening the rehearsal dinner was given by Misses Estelle, Blanche and Louise McBride at their home in Second street. The decorations were pink roses and peonies. The guests were members of the bridal party. Mrs. Gertrude Madigan of Connellsville was a member of the bridal party. Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. John Dixon and daughter, Miss Gertrude, Dr. John Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Madigan and daughter, Miss Blanche Madigan.

June Girl.

WHAT is so rare as a day in June?
The poet asks and he would show,
Of all the rare things beneath the moon
It is the rarest one you know.

AD he but known my June girl,
He would have sung a different tune,
For what mere day could as rare be Alone is she—and thirty in June.

W. L. FAGAN'S FUNERAL.

Services Largely Attended at Immaculate Church This Morning.

One of the largest funerals held here for some time was that of the late Wm. L. Fagan which took place this morning at 10:15 o'clock from his late home on Main street, West Side. Requiem high mass was celebrated at 10:15 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Church.

The funeral procession was headed by members of Company D followed by a delegation from the Order of the Moose and the Eastern Union. The church was well filled with friends and relatives of the deceased. The floral tributes were numerous and unusually handsome. Interment in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Plants Without Roots.
The "flower of the air" is a curious plant found in China and Japan. It is so called because it appears to have no root and is never fixed to the earth. It twines around a dry tree or sterile rock. Each shoot produces two or three flowers like a lily—white, transparent and odoriferous. It is capable of being transported 500 or 700 miles, and it grows as it travels, suspended on a twig.

THE PAVING LET FOR SCOTSDALE.

P. H. Baldwin of Coraopolis Gets the Entire Improvements.

FAIRMONT BLOCK IS CHOSEN

Except For Stoner Street and Grant Avenue, Which May Use Block New
to Hill Town, If Arrangements Can Be Made With Contractor.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, June 14.—Town Council met last evening to award the bids for the paving of Chestnut street between Pittsburg and Market street, and from Market street to Ridgeway's Grant avenue, Stoner street and Fourth avenue which had been opened the night before. The bidders were the Uniontown Construction Company, P. J. Flynn of Connelville, J.
W. Butler of McKeesport, C. H. Bal-win of Coraopolis, and Harry Hall & Company of Homestead. The bids were for using Layton block, United block, Patent block, Mack block, Maxwell block and Bellver block. It was decided that the Mack block be used, and bids of each one on these were read by the secretary.
Analysis of the bids showed that Baldwin was the lowest bidder all the way through, but he was the only one not bidding on Mack and Maxwell block. Taking these two blocks Flynn would have got the most money on these two but higher than Baldwin on all others. It was decided to award the contract for the whole work to Baldwin. Then a motion was made to use Mack block for Stoner street if satisfactory arrangements can be made with Baldwin, who had no bid on that make, and after this was carried a motion was passed that Maxwell block be used on Grant avenue under similar conditions. A motion to use Layton block on Chestnut street was lost, and Fairmont block, with which the paving was done on Spring street, Arthur avenue and Market street was chosen for the two sections of Chestnut street and Fourth avenue.

Baldwin's bid for Fairmont block on Chestnut street from Market street to Ridgeway property was $2,451.66 and on Chestnut street from Pittsburg street to Market street, $1,193.39 and on Fourth avenue, $2,717.60, a total for these three jobs of $12,727.65. The bid on Mack brick on Stoner street, which was the lowest of the bids made for that block was by the same firm at $2,245.56, and the lowest with Maxwell block, on Grant street, was made by Flynn of Connelville, for $3,114.73.
The Mack dealer who was present said that he quoted his bid to Baldwin at the same price as to the others, and on this basis if Baldwin should put in these two streets at the same price as the lowest bidders on these particular makes, on which he himself had not bid, the total improvements would run $18,057.60.

D. F. Pickard was elected inspector of the improvements at $3 per day for a 10 hour day. Amel Shupe and Jerry Wiering were the other applicants.

Complaint had been made by the Board of Health that the street cleaners are in the habit of dumping their rubbish in the alleys until a wagon load would be accumulated, and steps will be taken to find a proper place for this stuff until it can be hauled away. The gas analysis in the sewers was the subject of another report by P. J. Miley of the Kruger figure is getting impatient as to what is to be done about the explosions in the sewer near him. He will be informed that Council stands that the gas company is the one to get rid of this trouble. Someone said that the company had been tapping their lines and fixing up the leaks.

Those present were W. L. Schaefer,
W. H. Sleight, William Butler, W.
T. Miley, G. F. Barclay, A. B. Findlay,
J. W. Fitzsimons, H. G. Martin, J. M.
Pyle, J. F. Barry and President M. L.
Hanes.

TWO SHOT IN RIOT.

Bradenville Streets Scene of Fight
Quelled by Troopers.
LATROBE, Pa., June 14.—(Special.)— Two men were shot during a riot in the streets of Bradenville Tuesday night which was the result of a general fight between the striking coal miners and the non-union miners employed in the mines about Bradenville.
Tony Zemel was shot in the leg and Michael Molok was shot in the body and leg.

A detachment of troopers was sent to the scene of the riot, but when the mounted policemen arrived the rioters had disappeared. The troopers later arrested a number of men and are holding them pending investigation.

SURRENDERING CHARTERS.

Pennsylvania Companies Turning In Worthless Rights From State.
HARRISBURG, Pa., June 14.—Although new corporations are being granted charters at the rate of from 100 to 150 a month, the list of companies to whose officers blanks calling for returns of gross receipts for purposes of State taxation are sent is very little changed in number from what it was two years ago. This fact was discovered during the last week, when the mailing list for the blanks was made up at the Auditor General's Department. The reports on gross receipts are called for twice a year, the periods being June 30 and December 31.

The reason for this singular state of affairs is that many corporations are surrendering their charters because of the activities of the federal and State governments against "paper" companies and those which hold franchises merely for the sake of keeping out other interests from obtaining possession. When the federal corporation act went into effect the officers of numerous inactive companies, finding that they had to make reports to the United States as well as to the Pennsylvania authorities, concluded that it was not worth the trouble.
Some of the big railroad companies have given up old charters, as have traction systems, for this reason, while the close watch being kept on water companies by the State Water Supply Commission has had the effect of causing surrender of dozens of rights which were never exercised.

Pittsburg and Philadelphia companies have also given up many charters in the last two years, the former city being the headquarters of almost all many companies as the latter, although there is a pronounced difference in population.

Continuance Asked in the Binder Case

Special to The Courier.
HOMERSETT, June 14.—Yesterday morning a continuance was announced in the inebrius corpus proceedings of Rudolph Binder, late clerk in the Kor-lath foreign bank and steamship agency, at Seap Level, which closed its doors shortly after the disappearance of the proprietor, M. F. Korlath, several weeks ago. Binder was lodged in jail charged with accepting money from depositors after Korlath had been declared insolvent.

Binder's hearing was originally set for Saturday last, but at that time was postponed until yesterday, when it was continued until tomorrow. It is likely that Binder will not press for a hearing until his former employer, M. F.
Korlath, is returned to the country, to face a charge of embezzlement in the amount of some twenty thousand dollars.

Chief of Police S. W. McMullen, the Windsor month who traced Korlath through the northern tier of States and Canada to San Francisco where he was arrested, is now in California to secure his extradition. McMullen has wired that Korlath has also begun his inebrius corpus proceedings and his return will likely be delayed a week or more.

Water Boy on B. & O. Missing

Special to The Courier.
SOMERSETT, June 14.—Antonio
Longo, aged 19, employed as water boy with a gang of Italian laborers working for the B. & O., a short distance above town, disappeared the other afternoon, since when nothing has been learned of his whereabouts.
His father can assign no reason for his son's conduct and since his disappearance has made a diligent effort to find him. The missing boy is small for his age, and has a scar on the left side of his neck. Any information regarding him will be gladly received by his father, Gino Longo, Box No. 322, Somerset, Pa.

The lad was last seen near the Cox's creek trestle and it is feared that he was drowned, although no body has been discovered in the creek between here and Rockwood. There is a deep hole in the bed of the stream near the trestle and some of the boy's friends suspect foul play.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 14.— (Special.)—The first charge of first degree murder made against a woman in this city in a long time was called

Mrs. Alice Poelcher, who shot and killed al.)—Several hundred men who considered themselves for baby trees in various parts of the United States and ing of the American Association of

RobEicher & Graft's Store at Scottdale

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, June 14.—Evidently sitting themselves for polished gentlemen burglars or preparing themselves to start an insurrection, thieves broke into the hardware store of Eicher & Graft last night and stole a quantity of safety and blade razors, pearl handled knives, revolvers, guns and cartridges. They also tried to break open the cash box in the safe but did not succeed.
A few pennies was all they got out of the safe. The safe was open, thus saving any blowing of it.
They broke open the grating of the basement window on Chestnut street and then broke the glass out of the first door. A full account of the stolen property has not been made. The robbery was discovered when the store was opened for business this morning by Lewellyn Jones.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 14.—[The electors throughout Nova Scotia are today voting on a referendum on the proposed agreement with the Liberal Government, and on their verdict depends the fate of the Liberal Government, which, under the leadership of Premier Murray, has been in office for many years. The campaign has been hotly contested in all of the eighteen constituencies. Both sides express confidence in the outlook, though the Conservative candidates cling to the belief that the Liberal Government is practically certain of five years' more in office. It can be truly said that outside of extreme partisans nobody expects the Murray Government to be defeated. This is due to many reasons, the main fact being that since 1867 only one Conservative Government has been in power in Nova Scotia, and that was 22 years ago. Four times has Premier Murray appeared to the people, and four times has he been returned to power with overwhelming majorities.

On the other hand, the Conservatives have a confidence, even more than the Government, in their own defeat. The Government majority will be reduced very close to the vanishing point. The Conservatives have attacked the Government with a general criticism of their policies and with the declaration that it is time for a change.

From a broad viewpoint the results of the election will be of interest and instructive Canadian opinion on the reciprocity pact. It is not a direct issue between the local contestants, yet there can be no doubt, that the proposed agreement, if it is disapproved in Nova Scotia, will notably diminish support of the Murray ministry, since the ministry not only favors the agreement, but has secured the assembly of the province for the laudat minister's course in reciprocity.

Captain A. R. Kidd announced this morning that he has decided upon June 21 as the date for Company D's cross-country hike to Killarney Park. The date is a week from next Saturday.

The company will get an early start from the Armory and march over the mountain roads to the Springfield townships resort. Captain Kidd hopes to take the company on several tramps during the summer and by the time the encampment is held the latter part of July will have his men hardened for the rigorous routine at Indiana.

The Courtship of Miles Standish

With Illustrations by Howard Chandler Christy

(Copyright, The Bobbs-Merrill Company)

Miles Standish

In the Old Colony days, in Plymouth, the land of the Pilgrims, To and fro in a room of his simple and primitive dwelling, Glad in doubt and hope, and boots of Cordovan leather, Strode, with a martial air, Miles Standish, the Puritan Captain. Dressed in thought he stood, with his hands behind him, and pausing Ever and anon to behold his glittering weapons of warfare, Hanging in shining array along the walls of the chamber— Cutlans and cornet of steel, and his trusty sword of Damascus, Curved at the point and inscribed with its mystical Arabic sentence. While underneath, in a corner, were fowling-piece, musket, and match-lock. Short of stature he was, but strongly built and athletic, Broad in the shoulders, deep-chested, with muscles and sinews of iron; Brown as a nut was his face, but his russet beard was already

The Puritan maiden, Priscilla.

Flashed with patches of snow, as bedfellows sometimes in November. Near him was seated John Alden, his friend and household companion, Writing with diligent speed at a table of pine by the window; Fair-haired, azure-eyed, with delicate features, and a smile that showed his teeth, Having the dew of youth, and the beauty thereof, as the captive Whom Saint Gregory saw, and exclaimed, "Not Angles, but Angels." Youngest of all was he of the men who came in the Mayflower.

Suddenly breaking the silence, the diligent scribe interrupted, "Spoke, in the pride of his heart, Miles Standish, the Captain of Plymouth. 'Look at these arms,' he said, 'the warlike weapons that hang here burnished and bright and clean, as if for parade or inspection! This is the sword of Damascus I fought with in Flanders; this Fixed to the opposite wall was a sheaf of books, and among them Prominent, three, distinguished allies for bulk and for binding: Barlow's Artillery Guide, and the Commentaries of Caesar. Out of the Latin translated by Arthur Golding of London. And, as if guarded by these, between them was standing the Bible. Musing a moment before them, Miles Standish paused, as if doubtful Which of the three he should choose for his consolation and comfort. Whether the war of the Hebrews, the famous campaigns of the Romans, Or the Artillery practice, designed for belligerent Christians. Finally down from its shelf he dragged the ponderous Roman. Seated himself at the window, and opened the book, and in silence Turned o'er the well-worn leaves, where thumb-marks thick on the margin. Like the trample of foot, proclaimed the battle was hottest. Nothing was heard in the room but the hurrying pen of the scribe. Busily writing epistles important, to go by the Mayflower. Ready, to call on the scribe, or next day at latest, God willing! Homeward bound with the tidings of all that terrible winter. Letters written by Alden, and full of the name of Priscilla. Full of the name and the fame of the Puritan maiden Priscilla!

Love and Friendship

Nothing was heard in the room but the hurrying pen of the scribe. Or an occasional sigh from the laboring heart of the Captain. Reading the marvelous words and achievements of Julius Caesar. After a while he exclaimed, as he wrote with his hand, palm downward. Heavily on the page: "A wonderful man was this Caesar!" "You are a writer, and I am a fighter, but here is a fellow Who could both write and fight, and in both was equally skillful!" Straightway answered and spoke John Alden, the comely, the youthful: "Yes, he was equally skilled, as you say, with his pen and his weapons. Somewhere have I read, but where I forget, he could dictate

Now to the grave of the dead.

Seven letters at once; at the same time writing his memoirs. "Truly," continued the Captain, not heeding or hearing the other, "Truly a wonderful man was Julius Caesar! Better to first, he said, in a little Iberian village.

Every sentence began or closed with Priscilla. Then he second in Rome; and I think he was right when he said it. Twice was he married before he was twenty, and many times after; Battles five hundred he fought, and a thousand cities he conquered; He, too, fought in Flanders, as he himself has recorded; Finally he was stabbed by his friend, the great Brutus; Now, do you know what he did on a certain occasion in Flanders. When the rear-guard of his army retreated, the front giving way, too, And the immortal Twelfth Legion was crowded so closely together, There was no room for their swords? Why, he set a shield from a soldier. Put himself straight, at the head of his troops, and commanded the captains. Calling each by his name, to order forward the ensigns; Then to widen the ranks, and give more room for their weapons; So he won the day, the battle of some thing-or-other. That's what I always say: If you wish a thing to well done, You must do it yourself, you must not leave it to others!"

All was silent again; the Captain continued his reading. Nothing was heard in the room but the hurrying pen of the scribe. Writing epistles important to go next day by the Mayflower. Filled with the name and the fame of the Puritan maiden Priscilla. Every sentence began or closed with the name of Priscilla. Till the treacherous pen, to which he confided the secret. Strode, to betray it by alighting and shouting the name of Priscilla! Finally closing his book, with a bang of the ponderous cover. Sudden and loud as the sound of a soldier grounding his musket. Thus to the young man spoke Miles Standish, the Captain of Plymouth:

"Where you have finished your work. I shall not be impatient!" "I shall not be impatient!" Straightway Alden replied, as he folded the last of his letters. Pushing his papers aside, and giving respectful attention to Miles Standish. "Speak for whenever you speak, I am always ready to listen. Always ready to hear whatever pertains to Miles Standish."

Thereupon answered the Captain, embarrassed, and cutting his phrases: "It is not good for a man to be alone, say the Scriptures. This I have said before, and again and again I repeat it: Every hour in the day, I think it, and feel it, and say it. Since Rose Standish died, my life has been weary and dreary. Oftentimes have I been, beyond the healing of friendship. In my lonely hours have I thought of the maiden Priscilla. She is alone in the world; her father and mother and brother Died in the winter together; I saw her going and coming. Now to the grave of the dead, and now to the bed of the dying. Patient, courageous, and strong, and said to myself, that if ever There were angels on earth, as there are angels in heaven, Two angels I seen and known; and the angel whose name is Priscilla. Holds in my desolate life the place which the other abandoned. Long have I cherished the thought, but never have dared to reveal it. Being a coward in this, though valiant enough for battle, I part. Go to the maiden Priscilla, the lovely maiden of Plymouth. Say that a blunt old Captain, a man not of words but of actions, Offers his hand and his heart, the hand and heart of a soldier. Not in these words, you know, but in this short is my meaning; I am a maker of war, and not a maker of phrases."

You, who are bred as a scholar, can say it in elegant language. Such as you read in your books of the pleadings and wooings of lovers. Such as you think best adapted to win the heart of a maiden."

When he had spoken, John Alden, the fair-haired, tactful scribe. All abashed at his words, surprised, embarrassed, bewildered. Trying to mask his dismay by treating the subject with lightness. Trying to smile, and yet feeling his heart stand still in his bosom. Just as a time-piece stops in a house that is stricken by lightning. Thus made answer and spoke, or rather stammered thus answered: "Such a message as that, I am sure I should mangle and mar it;

"If you would have it well done—I am only repeating your maxim— You must do it yourself, you must not leave it to others!" But with the air of a man whom nothing can turn from his purpose. Gravely shaking his head, made answer the Captain of Plymouth: "Truly the maxim is good, and I do not mean to gainsay it. But we must use it discreetly, and not waste powder for nothing. Now, as I said before, I was never a maker of phrases. I can march up to a fortress and sum up the place to surrender. But march up to a woman with a proposal, I dare not. I'm not afraid of bullets, nor shot from the mouth of a cannon. But of a thundering 'No!' point-blank from the mouth of a woman. That I confess I'm afraid of, nor am I ashamed to confess it."

So you must grant my request, for you are an elegant scholar. Having the graces of speech, and skill in the turning of phrases." Taking the hand of his friend, who still was reluctant and doubtful. Holding it long in his own, and pressing it kindly, he added: "Though I have spoken thus lightly, yet deep is the feeling that prompts me: Surely you can not refuse what I ask in the name of our friendship!" Then made answer John Alden: "The name of friendship is sacred. What you demand in that name, I have not the power to deny you!" So the strong will prevailed, subduing and molding the gentler. Friendship prevailed over love, and Alden went on his errand. (To be Continued.)

TO WED PRINCE:

New York Paper Announces Engagement of Former Uniontown Girl. NEW YORK, June 14.—The American publisher the following special cable from Paul, Pierre, Rignaux, its Paris correspondent: "The noble title of prince, even of the royal blood, without a real prince of a man to sustain it, was not alone a sufficient document to Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald to tempt fate again in a second matrimonial venture when Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis, of the Imperial family of Austria, asked for her hand. But Mrs. Fitzgerald, with an established reputation as a clever business woman and excellent manager, did not permit her own objection to be an insurmountable impediment to what she realized might be made a desirable alliance, as with characteristic enterprise, she set about to make a real man out of the raw material of a prince. "Her two years' work has had a successful outcome, so her marriage will be a success of the near future. Mrs. Fitzgerald, who was Miss Lido Nicholas, of Uniontown, Pa., by her first marriage, to Gerald Purcell Fitzgerald, a nephew of Fitzgerald of Omar Khayyam fame, was placed in the ranks of the Irish aristocracy. Her forthcoming marriage with Prince Victor will connect her with the reigning Imperial family of Austria. "The story of the courtship of this royal sufferer is most unusual. Mrs. Fitzgerald met the Prince at Dharu where she had heard of his reputation and at first hesitated about admitting him to her drawing room. But when she began to know the Prince she found he had been misled that he was worthy of better things and beneath all those traits of character and elements of noble manhood that had been awarded and neglected in the careless life with undesirable associates which his high position had unwittingly denied to him. "She found him not only harassed by money lenders but by blackmailers, who, having pulled him down as far as possible, seemed determined never to allow him to arise again. Mrs. Fitzgerald, in spite of all this, recognized in the Prince the sterling qualities which only require liberation from the bondage of oppressed man to develop. "So, when he proposed, she told him that she loved him in spite of all he was, but she would never allow her heart to run away with her head. She explained that she would marry him if she could make out of him the man she thought he could be. She told her friends here that her intimate admirer was born unfortunately under the sign of Aquarius, so he had small chance of ever accomplishing anything for himself. She said: "You know he has never grown up, and while he is much older than I am, cannot help but feel a motherly solicitude toward him. "Mrs. Fitzgerald began her work by successfully combating noted blackmailers. She silenced them and got her Prince away from dangerous associates who were making use of his name and position for their own ends. She undertook an adjustment of his estates to prevent their being sacrificed and she got the Prince going right. "Prince Victor, with his new experience of having someone to really look out for him and his interests, became imbued with the serious determination to be the Prince this American girl was striving to make. "So Mrs. Fitzgerald has the Prince of her own heart, which her cleverness has created, and so loaded with royal titles that it will be an added household duty to remember them. "Mrs. Fitzgerald's family and friends are much opposed to her accepting a marriage with the Prince, but she answers them by saying, 'It is the man I love.' "However, there is every possibility that Emperor Francis Joseph will arrange the acceptance of Mrs. Fitzgerald at court, as over since the tragic death of his son he has not opposed true love matches. In fact the wife of the Archduke Ferdinand, his successor to the throne, was an untitled lady in the Duke's family. "Even if the Emperor's approval is withheld the fact that Prince Victor's father, for some family reason maintained a title in Hungary, will give a loophole for the happy solution of the difficulty."

GREAT COKE PLANT.

Is Being Planned at Alleghippa by the Jones & Laughlin Company. Plans are under consideration by the officials of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company for the construction of one of the most modern coke plants in the country, to be erected on the Alleghippa site of the company, to provide coke for the blast furnaces

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eric, Pa. — "I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. ENDLICH, R. F. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

There, the new plant will be built from funds provided by the recent $10,000,000 bond issue, and it is expected that the initial capacity will be about 2,000 tons of coke a day, or 4,000 tons each heat of 48 hours. The size and type of ovens has not been yet determined upon, but from the ideas now being worked out the company will improve upon its present model coke plant in Second avenue and may secure some 60 per cent of the gas of the coke ovens for fuel purposes.

The company will ship by boat its coke coal from its mine up the Monongahela river to the Alleghippa works and provision is being made for an extensive plant for the unloading of the coal right at the oven plant. The original plans for the Alleghippa coke plant called for an investment of $5,000,000 and it is believed that at least this sum will be expended in the improvement, while extensive changes and enlargements in the mills and steel works will also be made.

COKE RECORDS BROKEN.

Production in 1910 Heavy, But Profit Was Light.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—More coke was produced in the United States in 1910 than ever before in the country's history and the year also was a record-breaker for value of the product, according to a geological survey report today. The year was one of doubtful prosperity for the coke-making business, however, for the increased value of coke was considerably more than offset by higher cost of coal used.

In 1910 the output was 41,681,410 short tons, valued at $95,886,257, while that for 1909 was 39,315,065 short tons, valued at $90,955,422. Against this increase of $9,730,734 in value of product, there was an increase of $12,604,732 in the cost of coal used.

Most Conneltsville People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's the Back.

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Tells you the kidneys need help. For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Cure backache and urinary ills. Good proof in the following statement. Jacob DuVal, 301 Mulberry Street, Scotland, Pa., says: "About seven years ago my back was injured and after that I suffered from kidney trouble. My back ached a great deal and there were severe pains in my sides and loins. At times I was stiff and lame and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage. A friend finally advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I did so. They soon helped me and continued use effected a complete cure. I am glad to tell of my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Over 2,000 Satisfied Spectacle Wearers in Fayette County—My Record in Less Than One Year's Time.

THIS IS THE BEST OFFER I HAVE EVER MADE TO THE PEOPLE OF CONNELLSVILLE.

DR. M. B. BURSTAN. ONE MORE WEEK

AS A GREAT MANY PEOPLE WERE DISAPPOINTED I HAVE DECIDED TO CONTINUE THIS WONDERFUL OFFER FOR ONE MORE WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY AND WILL FIT YOUR EYES WITH $3.50 OR $5.00 "STEVENS S. Q." GOLD FILLED EYE GLASSES FOR $1. EXAMINATION FREE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED. PLEASE REMEMBER I AM DOING THIS TO BUILD UP A PERMANENT BUSINESS. COME EARLY IN THE MORNING AND EARLY IN THE WEEK AND YOU WILL BE SURE TO GET WAITED ON.

This "Stevens" sale is an advertising proposition pure and simple. Your advantage is a superior grade of goods at a special low price—my profit is making 600 new acquaintances and winning their confidence. Stevens mountings are the best in the world—they occupy the same position in the optical trade as "Rogers Bros. 1817" do in the silver line, and "Waltham" do in the watch business.

SUCH A STARTLING ANNOUNCEMENT no doubt makes you ask if it is absolutely bonafide and if so why I do it. The whole story is this. I have decided to make this unheard-of sacrifice of regular $3.50 and $5.00 gold-filled glasses at $1. for a limited time of week to gain the full support and patronage of Conneltsville people and thus build up an extensive optical business. The lenses are the same I sell in my regular lines, every one fully guaranteed, and I use just as much care in fitting your eyes. Difficult cases a specialty.

Headaches and nervousness and other troubles far remote from the eye are oftentimes the direct result of an eye strain which if corrected with the proper glasses would give immediate relief. It is not necessary for the eye to be sore to indicate the need of glasses. In many cases the eye may be perfectly healthy and glasses may be needed for the reasons which are only apparent to the physician and skilled eye specialist.

EXAMINATION FREE. During this wonderful sale I will be in charge and every patient will get a scientific examination and glasses properly adjusted. REMEMBER I am making this sale to build up my business and cannot afford to exaggerate. Special prices during sale on specially ground lenses and bifocals.

For balance of week only "Stevens S. Q." Gold filled Eye-glasses—Mountings—every pair guaranteed by the makers—fitted with our own lenses—framing examination, $1.00. All "Stevens" frames and mountings are stamped on the bridge—"Stevens S. Q."—look for it—don't take my word. They are gold filled—not gold plated—permanently guaranteed by Stevens & Co., (Inc.) of Providence, R. I., and myself—and will be replaced at any time if they fail to give satisfaction.

Caution about the Use and Selection of Spectacles. "Persons having normal vision will be able to read this notice at a distance of 14 inches from the eye with ease and without strain. If you find it difficult to read this notice at a distance of 14 inches from the eye, you are suffering from defective vision and should have your eyes examined by a specialist. The use of spectacles will result in perfect vision and prevent the strain and weariness which result from defective vision. The use of spectacles will also prevent the strain and weariness which result from defective vision. The use of spectacles will also prevent the strain and weariness which result from defective vision."

$50 REWARD. I have no agents and will pay the above reward for the arrest and conviction of persons claiming to be me or my representative.

OFFICE HOURS: 9 A. M. until 8 P. M. Sundays, 9 A. M. until 1 P. M. Dr. M. B. Burstan, SECOND FLOOR, TITLE & TRUST BUILDING, CONNELLSVILLE, PA.

RUSSELL SAGE GOES FAR.

Says No Man Has a Right to Spend All That He Makes.

Russell Sage once said: "No man has a right to spend everything he earns; saving a part of his income is a duty every man owes to himself, his family and the community in which he lives." Whether a man has the right to spend everything he earns or doesn't, it's a mighty foolish thing to do. Stagnation and accident is something that every man must take into consideration. Old age, too, is bound to come. Just ordinary common sense should lead every man who is making money to save some of it—to put it in a good, strong bank, where it will earn more money—the First National Bank of Connellsville for instance, where savings are absolutely safe and 4% interest is paid.

NASTY FALL FROM BIKE.

Somerset Blacksmith injured in effort to save small boy.

SOMERSET, June 14.—(Special.)—Justin Stutzman, the well known Somerset blacksmith, was the victim of an accident Monday evening that will likely keep him housed up for a week or two. Stutzman was riding his bicycle over one of the paved streets and when going at a rapid rate a small child walked directly in front of him; he gave the handle bars a quick twist to prevent running down the little tot and as a result he fell long against a curb.
 He sustained an injury to the head which rendered him unconscious for more than an hour. A deep wound indicates that he had a narrow escape from death.

Kling Joins Boston.

After a conference with President Russell of the Boston club, Kling started for Pittsburgh with the Boston team. Kling said he would receive a large bonus from Boston for playing.

CATARRH GOES

So Does Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup and Asthma.

You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below, whether you have catarrh or not.

Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from the nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, tickling in throat, droppings in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, low spirited at times, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

A. A. Clarke has a sensible remedy (money back if it fails) for catarrh, called HYOMEL (pronounced High-ome) which is a vaporized air, so soft and gentle, that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ infested membrane, it kills all germ life, gives relief in two minutes, and cures catarrh.

The price, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, is only $1.00. The inhaler will last a lifetime, so that should you need a second bottle of HYOMEL, you can get it for 50 cents. Ask A. A. Clarke.

Well, Connellsville Never Had a Silk Sale Like This.

New silks, mind you—foulards that have the sturdiest bodies and the most modern printings on them—slashed shamefully. Not by us—but the mills—they were frantic to sell—they must have over-produced tremendously.

Silk business here has been good—better than ever, in fact, but no doubt, some sections somewhere failed to absorb their usual quantity. We bought these when the bottom dropped out—took the bigger part of a mill surplus, knowing you'd take them if the price was right.

White Star Steamer Olympia Sails From Southampton to New York.

Special to The Courier.
 SOUTHAMPTON, June 11.—Amidst loud cheers from a huge assemblage that re-echoing across the water must have been an enthusiastic "bon voyage," the Leviathan White Star liner Olympia, Captain Smith, R. N., sailed out from this port today on her maiden voyage to New York. The event was a notable one, and thousands of persons assembled to witness the departure.
 The Olympia, which is a triumph of marine architecture, sailed gracefully out of the harbor, carrying a complement of passengers, 1,300, besides a crew of 80 officers and sailors, 35 engineers, 350 men in the engine room and stokehold, a chief cook and 40 assistants and innumerable other employees.
 The Olympia is unapproached not feet above the level of the water. Another novelty is a grillroom. The cabin suggests an old English chop-house, with high backed stalls of ancient oak, and broad low tables. It will be possible, at any hour of the day or night, for a passenger to use the grillroom. The palm garden is still another refuge for those who weary of the confines of the ship during the passage.
